pa-pa lea-vin' her home. To-day I will ma-rry my Cum-ber-land Rose. Verse: Ma's in the kit-chen Pa's in the lane. Prea-cher's in the par-lor with his black walk-in' cane.

The sun's in the hea-vens the wild ri-ver flows I'm in the holl-er wai-ting for Rose.

Chorus

When the moon is a'risin' over the hill Folks will be gatherin' 'round the old copper still We'll break out the fiddle and the old banjos Tonight there'll be dancing for me and my Rose
