

SONGS I WROTE FOR YOU

Words & Music by Joe LaMay

Unreleased

G D
Another Friday night - another lonely town
Em C
They're turning on the lights - they're setting up the sound
G D
I'm tuning my guitar - warming up the strings
Em C
I'm writing down the songs - that I'm gonna sing
G D
I'll sing a couple old songs - maybe something new Em C G
The ones I love the most - are the songs I wrote for you
Back out on the highway - heading somewhere new
There's no one going my way - just me and thoughts of you
We tried to stay together - all those many years
It was gonna last forever - all it brought was tears
I sing a lot of love songs - they help me make it through
The ones I love the most - are the songs I wrote for you

D C Em
Driving thru the moonlight - the road is whinin' low
C G D
Listenin' to the music - on the radio
C Em C Em
Steel guitars are playin' - a sad and lonesome song
C G D
Another heart is breakin' - and the road goes on and on Tonight I played my guitar - in another lonely town
And when the show was over - some people hung around
They asked me 'bout my travels - how far I had to go
We talked about the music - and songs that I might know
Just as I was leaving - someone asked me if I knew
The ones they love the most - are the songs I wrote for you
