

I Thought Heaven Was Calling Me Home

Words & Music by Sherri Reese

I thought heaven was calling me home
I thought heaven was calling me home
The light from your eyes
Opened up my skies
I thought heaven was calling me home

I thought heaven was calling me home
I thought heaven was calling me home
The love was undisguised
It had me mesmerized
I thought heaven was calling me home

*Late last night as I lay dreaming
You appeared before me
Your face was beaming
I thought I'd left this lonely place
As you softly called my name*

And I thought heaven was calling me home
I thought heaven was calling me home
I thought somehow I'd died
When I awoke I had to cry
I thought heaven was calling me home
I thought somehow I'd died
When I awoke I had to cry
I thought heaven was calling me home

©2000 Sherri Reese, Pressed For Time, BMI. All rights reserved.