

There Goes The Sparrow

Words & Music by Sherri Reese

There goes the sparrow
She's broken free
Escaped the bonds of captivity
She bruised her wings one time too many
There goes the sparrow
She's broken free

There goes the sparrow
She's taken flight
Said goodbye to the darkness
Said hello to the light
She'll be miles away, by the end of the night
There goes the sparrow
She's taken flight

*Her struggle she had won
What was done was forever done
No more quiet desolation
No more quiet desperation
She'll be singin' in the sun*

There goes the sparrow
She won't look back
Her runaway heart knows
It's on the right track
The key to her tomorrow, locked the doors of her past
There goes the sparrow
She won't look back

There goes the sparrow
In the sun
