

COMIN' HOME TO SAY GOODBYE (Oh California)

Words & Music by Joe LaMay

I left Frisco yesterday
I had some good times with my friends
I never let on that I knew
That you and I were at the end
'Cause I've learned too well to pretend

*I'm comin' home to see you one more time
Cause you're the one who made me cry
I'm comin home to see you one more time
I'm comin' home to say goodbye*

The mountains and the coast are clear
I see the lights of Monterey
Oh California my old friend
Let's not forget those early days
Fore I may never pass this way

Chorus

Now I'm prepared to face the pain
Of leaving one I love so well
But you're a stranger in my life
So why not end this living hell
Then only time alone will tell

Chorus

The mountains and the coast are clear
I see the lights of big L.A.
Oh California my old friend
Let's not forget those better days
Fore I may never pass this way

Chorus

©1976 Joe LaMay, Pressed For Time, BMI. All rights reserved.

Released on:

Clutterbuck, LaMay & Kennedy
(1976)

45 RPM Single
w/Streets Of London
Lifetime Recordings

•

Joe LaMay

Pressed For Time
(1986)

Local Folkel Records

•

Joe LaMay

Behind The Wheel
(1991)

Local Folkel Records