

DOWN BY THE WILLOW GROVE

Words & Music by Joe LaMay

Oh my darlin' Sarah please walk with me alone
Down by the grove of willows that we call our own
And while the moon is shining brightly through the willow trees above
I'll ask you darlin' Sarah to be my only love

Oh yes my darlin' Jesse I'll walk with you alone
Down by the grove of willows that we call our own
While the moon is shining brightly through the willow trees above
I promise darlin' Jesse I'll be your only love

Then oh my darlin' Sarah please say you'll be my bride
Meet me and the preacher down by the willowside
Say you'll wear your dress of blue - we'll tie the knot of love
And build a humble little cabin down by the willow grove

Oh yes my darlin' Jesse I will be your bride
I'll meet you and the preacher by the willowside
I will wear my dress of blue - we'll tie the knot of love
And build a humble little cabin down by the willow grove

Oh my darlin' Sarah - one more thing I'll ask of you
That we may rest together when our time is through
Buried 'neath the willow trees - forever tied in love
Beside our humble little cabin down by the willow grove

Oh yes my darlin' Jesse I will promise you
That we will rest together when our time is through
Buried 'neath the willow trees - forever tied in love
Beside our humble little cabin down by the willow groves

©2001 Joe LaMay, Pressed For Time, BMI. All rights reserved.

Released on:

Joe LaMay & Sherri Reese

Heaven

(2002)

Tall Cotton Music