

LOW BOSSIE LOW

Words & Music by Joe LaMay

There's one little calf out in the lane
Low Bossie Low
Better bring that calf back home again
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Better bring that calf back home again
Low Bossie Low

There's two little calves stuck in the fence
Low Bossie Low
Two little calves ain't got no sense
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Two little calves ain't got no sense
Low Bossie Low

There's three little calves lost in the woods
Low Bossie Low
Eating things they ought not should
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Eating things they ought not should
Low Bossie Low

There's four little calves all covered in briars
Low Bossie Low
Had to pull them off with rusty pliers
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Had to pull them off with rusty pliers
Low Bossie Low

There's five little calves down in the crick
Low Bossie Low
Had to prod them out with a hickory switch
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Had to prod them out with a hickory switch
Low Bossie Low

Six little calves done wandered off
Low Bossie Low
Bring them calves back to the trough
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Bring them calves back to the trough
Low Bossie Low

How many calves are in this song?
Low Bossie Low
If you said six, then you are wrong
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Low Bossie Low
Twenty-one calves are in this song
Low Bossie Low

©2009 Joe LaMay, Pressed For Time, BMI.
All rights reserved

Unreleased